HEAD OF SCHOOL'S REPORT

When the gates of Nashville's first Episcopal School welcomed 16 founding students August 15, 2016, a new legacy for our city was born. In truth, we couldn't imagine what the year would hold. We were always confident in the ability and experience of our teachers, and we'd made well-advised investments in our academic program. A new campus had been built and completed on the grounds of St. Ann's Episcopal Church. Most importantly, we had the power of the Holy Spirit filling our sails and providing us with brilliant energy.

The 2016-2017 academic year exceeded all of our expectations. Whether all-school trips on the MTA to downtown Nashville, laughter filled lunches on the Burgess Porch, or a lively evening under the stars cracking lobsters with Episcopal School's closest friends, the year was unimaginable. Realizing the need to cement a long-term strategy to sustain our growth, the board of trustees completed a formal strategic planning process. Now we are in Year Two with a new third grade and more than twice as many students!

I am grateful to our school community of nearly 300 benefactors, who have given their time and treasure generously to launch Episcopal School of Nashville. I am eager to welcome you to our campus for our daily chapel service and tour. Come and experience the difference that you are making in our community and the lives of the children we serve.

Harrison Stuart, HEAD OF SCHOOL

CHAIRMAN'S BRIEF

Spirits are soaring at the nation's newest Episcopal school where each day our pioneering young students grow in fellowship and community as together they confront universal themes of love, faith, and service in our daily chapel. Inside each Episcopal School of Nashville child shines an ever-brightening light of compassion, of empathy and devotion illuminated by the knowledge that in each peer is a God-given uniqueness. Thank you for joining us in this mission to provide Nashville's children with this powerful and lifelong gift of spiritual formation.
